LIBRARIES

Penn has a large and service-oriented library system. The combined 15 libraries on campus contain over 4,500,000 volumes, subscribe to more than 33,000 serials, and offer a rapidly growing set of electronic services which can be accessed from home or office, as well as in the libraries.

Research

• For Research Guides by subject, visit: https://guides.library.upenn.edu/hometabs (https://guides.library.upenn.edu/hometabs/).

• To get help with research, students can submit questions online (http://faq.library.upenn.edu/ask/) or make an appointment for in-person assistance (http://faq.library.upenn.edu/widget_standalone.php?la_widget_id=3206).

Canvas

Canvas is the online learning management system used at Penn. A valid PennKey is required to login to the system.

• To login to Canvas, visit: https://canvas.upenn.edu (https://canvas.upenn.edu/).

Weigle Information Commons (WIC) (http://commons.library.upenn.edu/)

WIC in Van Pelt Library supports students at the individual and course level. Students can receive assistance with writing, speaking, and study skills (http://commons.library.upenn.edu/student-support/student-assistance-services/) at WIC, in addition to learning software and hardware (http://commons.library.upenn.edu/hardware-software/) through workshops and online tutorials. High-tech study spaces, equipment, and specialized printers are available as well.
