

ARCHAEOLOGICAL SCIENCE, MINOR

The Minor in Archaeological Science consists of six course units. Of these six, four will be CAAM classes from introductory, intermediate and advanced levels; one must be an advanced class with an archaeological science research component (the capstone class); and one must be a class in the archaeology or culture of a relevant area.

To Declare:

Students interested in declaring a Minor in Archaeological Science should contact Dr. Marie-Claude Boileau at mboileau@upenn.edu.

For more information: <https://www.penn.museum/teachers-and-students/for-penn-students/caam/minor-in-archaeological-science>
(<https://www.penn.museum/teachers-and-students/for-penn-students/caam/minor-in-archaeological-science/>)

Code	Title	Course Units
Minor Requirements
Archeological Materials Based Courses
	Select four course units from introductory, intermediate and advanced levels	4
Archaeological Science Research Capstone
	Select 1 course unit of Capstone course	1
Archaeology/Culture Course
	Select 1 course unit of Archaeology/Culture course	1
Total Course Units		6

The degree and major requirements displayed are intended as a guide for students entering in the Fall of 2020 and later. Students should consult with their academic program regarding final certifications and requirements for graduation.
