

ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES, MINOR

The Environmental Studies minor is designed to achieve an understanding of the breadth of contemporary environmental issues through a series of courses in environmental studies, while ensuring that each student pursue a purposeful course of study in some traditionally defined area of scholarship. Graduates of the program are trained for professions directly or indirectly involved with problems of environmental quality.

For more information: <http://www.sas.upenn.edu/earth/minors/environmental-studies-minor> (<http://www.sas.upenn.edu/earth/minors/environmental-studies-minor/>)

Code	Title	Course Units
Minor Requirements
Core Requirement
ENVS 100	Introduction to Environmental Science	1
Select one of the following:		1
GEOL 204	Global Climate Change
GEOL 100	Introduction to Geology
GEOL 103	Natural Disturbances and Human Disasters
GEOL 125	Earth and Life Through Time
GEOL 130	Oceanography
ENVS 301	Environmental Case Studies
Select 1 course unit in Data Analysis & Statistics		1
Select 1 course unit in Economics & Policy		1
Electives
Select 2 course units of 400 or 500-level Electives		2
Total Course Units		6

¹ Please consult with your Minor advisor.

The degree and major requirements displayed are intended as a guide for students entering in the Fall of 2020 and later. Students should consult with their academic program regarding final certifications and requirements for graduation.
