

GERMAN, MINOR

The major and minor programs in the Department of Germanic Languages and Literatures provide deep understandings of language and cultures. Building from basic language competency to synthesizing significant literary works, historical context and current media and politics, the program offers a comprehensive education through engaged, active learning in a combination of core courses with a wide range of electives. Your learning experiences can be broadened and applied in study abroad as well as internship programs.

For more information: <https://www.sas.upenn.edu/germanic/>

Code	Title	Course Units
Minor Requirements
Required Course
GRMN 2100	Texts and Contexts	1
Electives
Select 5 course units of Electives ¹		5
Total Course Units		6

¹ 2 course units at or above 2000-level taught in German by the Department of Germanic Literature and Language, 3 course units may be taken as German Literature in translation, as a PRE-APPROVED course in a related field, or approved study-abroad program.

The degree and major requirements displayed are intended as a guide for students entering in the Fall of 2023 and later. Students should consult with their academic program regarding final certifications and requirements for graduation.
