

MODERN MIDDLE EASTERN STUDIES, BA

The interdisciplinary Modern Middle Eastern Studies degree is designed to allow students to specialize in the Middle East as a region of the world and human experience by combining course work using both social scientific and humanistic approaches, underpinned by relevant language skills. Students will work with faculty committed to supporting interdisciplinary, applied, research-oriented advanced study. The major gives students opportunities to work on problems of politics, policy, history, ideology, social thought, economic development, and international relations.

The minimum total course units (<https://www.college.upenn.edu/credits-needed-major>) for graduation in this major is 32. Double majors may entail more course units.
