

2017-18 UNDERGRADUATE CATALOG

Welcome to the University of Pennsylvania Undergraduate Catalog

This new Catalog provides information for current and prospective students about courses at Penn at all levels of study. It also provides detailed information about traditional undergraduate programs, as well as important academic policies and resources for undergraduate students. Future Catalogs will provide information for graduate and professional students as well as non-traditional undergraduates.

In the meantime, prospective students can visit this searchable list of graduate and professional students programs (<http://www.upenn.edu/programs/graduate>) and current graduate and professional students can visit the Graduate Student Center (<http://www.gsc.upenn.edu/resources>) for helpful information. Undergraduates in the College of Liberal and Professional Studies (<http://www.sas.upenn.edu/lps>) and in the Bachelor of Science in Nursing Second Degree program (<https://www.nursing.upenn.edu/academics/accelerated-options/bsn-second-degree>) should visit the websites of their programs for academic information. Students interested in non-credit and continuing professional education may visit this webpage (<http://www.upenn.edu/programs/lifelong>).

This Catalog is intended to provide general information about the University of Pennsylvania and is accurate as of May 2017. The University reserves the right to change, modify, or correct any information contained herein without prior notice, at any time.
